I will always remember at all of the boring family functions we got dragged to, you made them worth going to, we knew it would be ok cause chad will be there, he will entertain us!!

Everytime Gordon tells people about my family he ends it with you should meet carmel's cousins Big Joe and Chad, you wouldn't want to come across them in a dark ally, don't mess with her!!

Will never forget you and we love u heaps R.I.P Mate. C u one day soon.

I am finding it too hard to go on without you in my life chaddy. I miss you so much and still struggle to come to terms that i will never see your gorgeous smile or your cheeky smile again. I would do anything in the world to have you back. I keep wishing there was something i could do. You used to annoy the shit out of me sometimes the way you would always be so happy and you would give me shit just to get a reaction out of me, now I would do anything for you to do it again. You were a superstar and the best man ever, just like Tupac being taken from us at 26, way too young with so much more to give you will always be remembered as a legend that will never be compared too. I love you so much chad and my love for you still grows stronger everyday until we meet again. Love Nicki 1 xoxoxoxoxoxoxox

Sandra, I know you must be so proud of your Chad he was a fantastic man everyone loved him and have all got so many lovely memories and nice things to say about him. i think of you every day and send my deepest condolences too you and all the family. I hope my children grow up to make me as proud of them as I know you would be of him. He was the bestfriend, godfather i could ever ask for. I love you all dearly, love Nicki 1 xoxoxoxoxoxoxoxo

Chaddy, I will never forget the first time I met you, we were at a Blue Light and you were doin your thang on the dance floor! I couldnt believe you were Sewelly's cousin. I had a crush on you after that, then you started at our school! I was sooo embarrassed! My love for you never went away as we became so close at school, even getting the teachers to think we were brother and sister, we had them going for ages until they rang your mum and we got busted!! Ill never forget the day you came to school and told me they had rang her!! You always were my protector both at school and out of school.... Remeber the incident at the Gardens!! he he he... I didnt see you for a while then we met up again at Westies... you were still my Chad! My heart still fluttered everytime I saw you.. You had this energy about you that made everything fun, there was always going to be laughs when you were around.

Chad you were able to make everyone you came in contact with feel loved, special, protected and happy, not many people in this world can do that. You are truely one in a million. I will love you forever.

My condolences to all the Tassone family

Love forever your "sister" Kate xxx

Little Chad...we practically grew up together we could call you our cuz. We had some great times together.

Remember the time when we were about 9 and Olivia and Joe would pick on you and Sonia because you were both the youngest....cruising on the four and three wheelers in Church Street where Rosetta lived and down at the caravan park. We use to get up to so much mischief together but we never got busted Joe and Olivia used to always blame you and Sonia....it was so cool to have a couple of boys to hang out with in Geelong...we use to always look forward to you and Joe coming down or catching up in Adelaide. We hadn't seen each other for a few years but we are so sad that your gone...we will miss your cheesy grin. Thanks for the memories... Lots of love Olivia and Sonia xoxox

June 15, 2008

 Our Dear Chaddy, You will always be remembered. The day you were born you had all our eyes upon you. When you were growing up with us you always had us on our toes, especially looking for you as you would always wander off, especially at the shops if you saw a motor bike in the store to ride, we always knew where to find you. You made us laugh, you made us cried when you hurt yourself and now we grieve over the loss of you. We will always remember the great times we shared as a family with you. Birthdays, Easter and Xmas. Thank you Chad even though it wasn't long enough with you, you will always be in our hearts. Until we all met again one day, we love you Chad. Love from your Uncle Peter, Aunty Sonya, Michael, Melanie and Alex.

Well What can i say !!!!!

Adelaide trips.... there was always memories in all my trips !!!

I can remember when you decided to come to Sydney for the first time and you got in the truck with Chopper and travelled 18 hours to come hang out on my side of town and i took you out and the whole of Sydney had no lights... Too funny you were peaking about that !!!!!

I counted year before last i think i had been to Adelaide over 18 times and you were like.... just move here... I loved getting on that plane knowing that we were always going to have fun no matter what !

The time we were all down at Glenelg beach and you and the boys were trying to put that tarp up because it was 40 degress + and we were scorching our feet and the whole beach stopped and was starring at all of us !!! To Funny !

What about when Alessio got his hair cut like a mullet and i said that he needed to chop it off and you said that you had a mullet and it looked killer so he wanted to keep his mullet so you would both look killer !!! (Well we know he ended up keeping it)

What about the Christmas and New Years that i spent their, my mum was loosing it because i didnt spend it with them... But she knew i was in good hands !!! You and all your close family and friends were around and we had a brilliant time...

Remember your Santa Claus that you kept in the lounge room all through xmas and then when xmas was finished that year you still had him starring at you in the lounge room. I told you that it was bad luck so you through him in the back room at your old house with all your other junk !!!

You always told me life is to short enjoy yourself and that's what you always did enjoyed every passing moment in your life. You were very addictive to me and to the rest of the people around you... The crazy things you said and did you kept everyone on their toes.

I miss calling you at 2am or 4am... just having a general chat about absolutly nothing !!!

My Adelaide trips wont ever be over !!! I know your family and friends will forever keep your spirit alive and i know that all good memories will always be around.

Make sure that while your up there that you do not remove the Yellow Sydney tag off the fridge !!! (You promised that you would keep it there until you moved to Sydney)

Your memories will always stay with us Chadley, all my love that Sydney Chic !!!

i remember the day i first met you jo and steve it was at a party at the campell town pad 8 years ago we were all sitting in joes car and joe told you to mc a ryme so you started and all us girls alex, samantha and myself were stunned by your talent.

that night in the car was a glimse of a new life for me because of that night i met steve who at the time was with samantha. but at gavins birthday in glenelg about a year later you joe steve lamby rose and myself all partied together it was funny cause steve and i got together that night and have been together ever since. that night

a ugly toothless girl came up to the hotel room and we were all paying her out when she went to leave she said good bye i made a funny noiise like ssss and ignored her then she lunged toward me to hit me steve you and joe all jumped up and protected me. so she couldn hit me then you kicked her out. you were always protective of your friends and family another time i remember is at your cousin jt s house one new years eve when your uncle bruno brought a strange chick to join our celebraation and she told aunty carmel that she was stale because she wasnt drunk you told her off and she went inside and sat at jts dining table nadine, tia and myself were sitting on a lounge chair and you noticed she was staring at tia and me and making us feel uncomfortable so you asked her what she was staring at she got smart back so you put her in her place and she left with her tale between her legs. you always made sure we were safe at donnas engagement i got a little drunk and walked to fever to wait for the boys to finish the bucks night you looked after me until steve got there. you protected me like a brother would protect his sister. over the years we all had some fantastic times you would mc at our private partys in the pool hall and get up and dance you ass off with all the girls. you were so cheeky and we all loved you for it.

i loved it when you stev and joe would all have dinner at our house it was like our family was home. you were always there when steve or i needed you and we really miss having you around.

i know steve really misses his morning wake up calls from you.

recently we had steves 27th surprise birthday and it was yet again another great night you got up on kareoke and even got steve up singing with you . i remember you holding the camera and whilst pulling one of your cheeky smiles you took a photo of you and me its hilarious we all became close to the badass family and therefore our family extended . you were so cheeky sometimes you would make smart remarks to steve to tick him off lik yelling at him saying that i kissed you or touched you but we all knew you so well we would just laugh.

we love you so much and will never forget all the smiles and laughs you gave us we hope you are having a blast up there in heaven with dave and micko i am sure you are you three together sounds like big trouble for anyone else run s muck for us we love you always xxxxxxxx

another time when we where driving in the kingswood with schelly, champs, and ricky o noe rick was driving and he didnt have a lic so he was nervous and i dont think chad and i helped him at all because we where making that much noise he ended up turning around from the driver seat and telling us to shut the fuck up.. (once again ya had to be there!!!)

Chad,

I miss you so much, I feel so lost without you here. Every second of every day that goes by, i'm always thinking of you, and all the memories we shared. When it came to the weekends we would go out and run a muck, and every weekend no matter what, we always ended up back at your house. You, me, Adz and lil

Kezza up late talking at the CCT... Well you, me and Adz would be talking but Kezza would be drawing totally ablivious to everything going on around her. Every Friday you would pick us up after work and as soon as we would get in the car you would say, "Wat's goin on." Later on you would ask us what we wanted to do that night, we would always say to you, dunno up to you. Sometimes you would sit there and yell out why do i always have to come up with the ideas every single weekend. It was funny, but it was only you who came up with the good ideas. Even if it was just sitting at your house. Every weekend we were out doing something, most of them were killa, then we'll have the odd quiet one just at your house, oh sometimes you would go and play the shogun at the pokies with Adzy, and some of thoes were stupid but funny weekends like i remember we would go do dowies at some random place, and the time we all broke into the whispering wall coz you had never been there. We all had to jump through the whole in the fence and B-rad helped you get through it was pitch black and we seen those weird ugly spiders when we were going across the bridge. Lucky Adzy was there to kill them coz i was shitting myself and YOU defanently wasn't going anywhere near em, i remember you saying that was the coolest thing eva going there. And out of all
